

Laughing All The Way

If ever there was a time in our lives for humor, creativity and inspirational perspectives, now is it. Al Lautenslager provides the proper messages in a way that will promote happiness with all employees, joyful lives and creative thinking.

Laughing all the way will get people laughing.

Want your meeting to be a smashing success?

This fun and motivational presentation is just the thing.

What you get:

- A positive tone, to set your meeting or conference into high gear as an opening keynote.
- Happy audience members that leave your convention, seminar, workshop or retreat laughing and thinking as a closing address.
- A complementary session to add to any spouse program, banquet or recognition dinner

Al uses business and real life experiences combined with humor that really does show that laughter is the best medicine.

His style, presentation and ability to motivate, transforms perspectives into high energy, forward thinking mindsets.

Audiences not only laugh and have fun but they leave energized, de-stressed and ever more creative.

Al's program has a broad appeal. It has been described as:

- Inspiring
- Entertaining
- Educational
- Fun
- Joyful

Al's presentation will show how a sense of humor can help you deal with any situation in both the workplace and in life.

With laughter, audience members of all types, see why humor can give them a new perspective; a perspective that can help them deal with anything.

As a result of hearing Al, audiences will:

- Better deal with pressure
- Have less stress with humor
- Learn a balancing perspective of life
- Leave happy and joyful
- Laugh together while working together

This presentation has been described as delightful, amusing and even thought provoking with humorous anecdotes that keeps the fun meter on max. This program is guaranteed to bring laughter to your life.

Its just plain funny.